

Iga Krata

Iga Krata was born in Poland. From 2000-2009 she studied at Feliks Parnell Ballet School in Lodz (graduate of Svetlana Sharova's class).

Both in 2007 & 2009 she received 2nd prize in "Wojciech Wiesiollowski Ballet Competition" in Gdansk, and distinction in 7th National Ballet Competition as "The best graduate of ballet schools in Poland". During this time she also participated in the XI International Ballet Competition in Moscow.

Mrs. Krata received multiple scholarships from the Ministry of Culture and National Heritage of Poland.

In 2009 she began her career as a member of the corps de ballet with the ballet company of the Grand Theatre in Lodz. She danced Clara in "Nutcracker" and Snow White in "Snow White and Seven Dwarfs". She was first promoted to Coryphée and later to Soloist.

In 2012 she moved to Poznan Opera Ballet and in the following season she joined Finnish National Ballet.

In 2015 she obtained her Master of Art degree from Warsaw Fryderyk Chopin University of Music. She participated in seminars of professors Marina Vasilyeva and Ludmila Sierieznikova.

During the last decade as ballet dancer her repertoire has included many demi-solo and corps de ballet roles in classical and contemporary work of Balanchine, Bart, Bintley, Caniparoli, Cranko, Elo, Harvey, Horečna, Kylian, Makarova, McGregor, Naharin, Neumeier, Scarlett, Preljocaj, Ratmansky among others.